REGIONAL INSIGHTS

Interstate

- The ocean and all its delights a highly attractive proposition.
- Surfing and seafood add to holiday appeal.
- Natural setting & wildlife in the area resonate strongly.
- Distance can be seen as a barrier for interstate visitation.

Intrastate

- Seen as a family friendly holiday destination.
- Fishing high up on the list of reasons to go.
- The beach and coastline provide experiences to fill an itinerary.
- Distance is the main hindrance to travel, considered further away than expected for those who have been.

International

- The International market is not a key focus for this area with low awareness.

Regional Visitor Strategy Priorities

- Yorke Peninsula's priority is to increase visitor expenditure and dispersal from intrastate and interstate drive markets.
- Develop new and promote existing experiences that play to the region's strengths of coastal lifestyle, wildlife and nature will be key.

Appeal data is from the consumer surveying conducted for the SATC by BDA Marketing Planning. Sample of 800 interstate travellers and 400 interstate travellers, followed by eight focus groups in Adelaide, Sydney and Melbourne. Comments relating to International appeal are sourced from the Consumer Demand Project run by Tourism Australia in 11 priority markets, with a sample of 1,600 per market.

Prepared by the South Australian Tourism Commission, December 2018

Sources Unless otherwise stated, all data in this report is from the International Visitor and National Visitor Surveys (IVS and NVS) conducted by Tourism Research Australia. These Sources are based on sample surveys and as with all sample surveys, are subject to sampling errors. Caution is required in interpreting some estimates, in particular, regional estimates can be affected by small sample sizes and can be subject to a high level of sampling error. Regional data should accordingly be used with a high level of caution and treated as being for indicative purposes only. Data refers to visitors 15 years and over. Unless otherwise stated, all data refers to the Annual Average results for the 3 years from December 2016 to December 2018.

ABORIGINAL CULTURAL TOURS SOUTH AUSTRALIA, YORKE PENINSULA

TOURISM CHAMPIONS CASE STUDY

"Working with the local community is all about not just value adding to our business but value adding to the community's business. I love what I do because it allows me to expose Aboriginal people to the rest of the world and share who we are and our culture."

Quenten Agius, Owner/Operator
Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia

ABOUT ABORIGINAL CULTURAL TOURS SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia gives people an insight into one of the world's oldest living cultures.

In operation for 14 years, the business offers Outbush and Coastal Aboriginal experiences led by knowledgeable Aboriginal guides.

Based in the Yorke Peninsula, owner/operator Quenten Agius has curated 10 different tours that cover a wide area of South Australia including the Yorke Peninsula, Clare Valley and Flinders Ranges and Outback.

BUSINESS GROWTH

Over 14 years of operating, Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia has a wide demographic and steady guest numbers from niche markets.

The business's markets include: Education 49 per cent (39 per cent Australian, 10 per cent international), International 25 per cent (guests from a variety of places including China, United States of America, Europe and more), Interstate 15 per cent and Intrastate 11 per cent.

Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia has received a variety of accolades including: winner of 29 global, national, state and regional awards, two time SA Tourism Awards Hall of Fame inductee, and eight time Australian Tourism Awards finalist.

CHALLENGES

Building awareness of the product is an ongoing challenge as people don't know what to expect from a cultural tour. Quenten creates customised tours so people can get the most from it.

People are also after tours that cover more regions, and Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia is working towards including more in the future.

THE FUTURE

Into the future, Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia will continue to look at capacity building and a sustainable and economical business strategy. Quenten is looking at building a cultural tour on Kangaroo Island where he also has ancestral connections through his family.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia employs local Aboriginal people on a casual basis.

The business supports local businesses on a regular basis including purchasing fuel and using local accommodation providers for tours.

The business also purchases local produce and ensures visitors taste fresh produce from the region, for example local seafood.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN TOURISM COMMISSION COLLABORATION

Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia actively participates in SATC marketing including taking part in industry events and promotion of Aboriginal product to international and national markets.

The SATC includes Aboriginal Cultural Tours South Australia on a variety of media and industry familiarisation itineraries.

Participated in SATC and Tourism Australia's DERTOUR Germany Marketing Campaign.
