ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE

INFORMATION STATEMENT  Government of South Australia

INFORMATION STATEMENT

Take this document with you to get your Advance Care Directive witnessed.

Your witness will ask you to read this Information Statement, and then ask you some questions.

This is to make sure that you understand what you are doing by making an Advance Care Directive, and that it is your choice to write one.

Did you know?
The Information Statement is available in other languages on the Advance Care Directive website (advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au)

ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE*What is an Advance Care Directive?

An Advance Care Directive is a legal form that allows people aged 18 years and older to:

- » write down their wishes, preferences and instructions for future health care, end of life, living arrangements and personal matters; and/or
- » appoint one or more Substitute Decision-Makers to make these decisions on their behalf when they are not able to make a particular decision for themselves.

It cannot be used to make financial decisions.

If you have written a refusal of health care, it must be followed if it is relevant to the circumstances at the time.

All other information written in your Advance Care Directive should be used to help your Substitute Decision-Maker/s, your health care workers or Person/s Responsible (for example, close family/friends) make decisions on your behalf.

It is your choice whether or not to have an Advance Care Directive. No one can force you to have one, or to write things you do not want to write. These are offences under the law.

As long as you are able to make legal documents, you can change your Advance Care Directive by completing a new Advance Care Directive Form.

Your new Advance Care Directive Form will replace all other documents you may have completed previously, including an Enduring Power of Guardianship, Medical Power of Attorney or Anticipatory Direction.

When will it be used?

Your Advance Care Directive can only be used if you are not able to make your own decisions, either temporarily or permanently.

You will be considered unable to make a particular decision if you cannot:

- » understand information about the decision
- » understand the risks and benefits of the choices
- » remember the information for a short time; and
- » tell someone what the decision is and why you have made the decision.

If any of the above statements apply to you, someone else will need to make this particular decision for you.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

Who will make decisions for you if you cannot?

It is your choice whether you appoint one or more Substitute Decision-Makers.

If you have appointed one or more Substitute Decision-Makers, they will be legally able to make decisions for you about your health care, living arrangements and other personal matters when you are not able to.

You can choose the types of decisions you want them to make in Part 2b: Conditions of Appointment of your Advance Care Directive.

If you do not appoint any Substitute Decision-Makers, someone close to you (like a close family member or friend) may be asked to make a health decision for you. This person is called a 'Person Responsible'.

They must follow any relevant wishes or instructions you have written in your Advance Care Directive.

Anyone making a decision for you will need to make a decision they think you would have made in the same circumstances.

Refusal/s of health care

You may have written in your Advance Care Directive that you do not want certain types of health care (also known as a refusal of health care).

It is important to make sure you have written down when, or under what circumstances, any refusals of health care apply.

If you have refused specific health care in your Advance Care Directive, your Substitute Decision-Maker/s, Person Responsible and your health practitioner must follow that refusal, if it is relevant to the current circumstances.

This means that your health practitioner will not be able to give you the health care or treatment you have refused.

If you refuse health care but do not write down when the refusal applies, it will always apply when you cannot make the decision.

A health practitioner can only go against a refusal of health care if they have evidence to suggest you have changed your mind but did not update your Advance Care Directive, or the health practitioner believes you didn't mean the refusal of health care to apply in the current circumstance.

If this happens, they will need consent from your Substitute Decision-Makers, if you have any, or a Person Responsible, to provide any health care.

You cannot refuse compulsory mental health treatment included in a community or involuntary treatment order if you have one.

ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE*Letting people know you have an Advance
Care
Directive

To let people know you have an Advance Care Directive, it is recommended that you:

1. Complete the Wallet Card on the front cover of this Kit or download and complete a Wallet Card from the Advance Care Directives website (advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au)
2. Give a certified copy to any appointed Substitute Decision-Makers, your doctor (and any other relevant health care worker), close family or friends, health service you regularly attend and or aged care facility (if relevant) and those close to you.
3. Keep a certified copy with you and where you can easily find it.
4. Fill out the Emergency Medical Information Booklet (emib.org.au) and display it with your Form on your fridge.

INFORMATION FOR SUBSTITUTE DECISION-MAKERS

Government of South Australia

INFORMATION FOR SUBSTITUTE DECISION-MAKERS

Read this information before you agree to be appointed as a Substitute Decision-Maker. Keep this information for future reference.

By signing the Advance Care Directive Form you are agreeing to be the person's Substitute Decision-Maker and understand the responsibilities of this role.

Before you sign, make sure you understand:

- what types of decisions you will be able to make
- how the person wants you to make those decisions for them; and
- whether you are able to be a Substitute Decision-Maker.

People who cannot be appointed as a Substitute Decision-Maker include the person's:

- doctor
- nurse; or
- paid professional carer.

Family members or friends who are paid a Carer Allowance by Centrelink can be appointed as Substitute Decision-Makers.

After you are appointed, you should keep a certified copy of the completed and signed Advance Care Directive where you can easily find it.

You should try to have regular discussions with the person who appointed you, in case their circumstances change.

ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE*What is the role of a Substitute Decision-Maker?

As a Substitute Decision-Maker, you must try to make a decision you believe the person would have made for themselves in the same situation.

As a Substitute Decision-Maker, you can make all the decisions the person wanted you to make, but you cannot:

- make a decision which would be illegal, such as requesting any illicit drugs.
- refuse food and water to be given to them by mouth.
- refuse medicine for pain or distress (for example, palliative care).
- make legal or financial decisions (unless you have also been appointed as an Enduring Power of Attorney for financial matters).

When contacted and asked to make a decision, you must:

- Only make a decision when the person who appointed you cannot make their own decision, whether it be temporary or permanent.
- Support that person to make their own decisions if they are able to.
- Produce an original or certified copy of the person's Advance Care Directive Form or advise if it can be accessed in an electronic record (e.g., My Health Record).
- Only make decisions that you have been appointed to make.
- Try to contact any other Substitute Decision-Maker who has been appointed to make the same types of decisions as you.
- Only make a decision on your own if no other Substitute Decision-Maker with the same decision-making responsibility as you cannot be contacted, or if the decision is urgent.
- Inform any other Substitute Decision-Maker/s of the decisions you make.
- Try to make a decision you believe the person would have made in the same circumstances. For guidance when making decisions, look at the Decision-Making Pathway on the last page of the Information for Substitute Decision-Makers, or for more detail visit advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au

The graphic features a dark blue header with the title 'INFORMATION FOR SUBSTITUTE DECISION-MAKERS' in white. Below this, on a light blue background, is the section 'Where to get help, advice and more information' in bold. To the right of this section, there are three paragraphs of text: one about the Advance Care Directives website, one about the Legal Services Commission helpline, and one about the Office of the Public Advocate. The Office of the Public Advocate section includes a bulleted list of four resources. ## ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE

Stand in my shoes: a guide to decision making for Substitute Decision-Makers

- 1 Is the person able to make a decision? As Substitute Decision-Maker, you may want to assess whether the person is able to make their own decision for yourself. Visit the website to learn more about how to assess decision making capacity. If the person is unable to make their own decision (meaning a substitute decision is required), move to Step 2.
- 2 Check whether the person's preferences are included in their Advance Care Directive. Check whether preferences relevant to the decision have been included in the person's Advance Care Directive or mentioned to you in a previous discussion.
- 3 Listen to health professionals. For decisions relating to the person's health, listen to the advice given by health professionals about treatment, health care options and likely outcomes. Think about how this advice lines up with the person's wishes, in particular:
  - » interventions some people might think are overly burdensome or intrusive
  - » 'What is important to me', 'Health care I prefer' and 'Refusals of health care' included in Part 3 and Part 4 of the Form.
- 4 Comply. Make sure you comply with specific refusals of medical treatments or health care and interventions if they apply to the current circumstances (Part 4 of the Form).
- 5 Consider other preferences. Consider other preferences and directions in the Advance Care Directive, relevant to your current decision (Part 3 of the Form).
- 6 Consultation. If there are no other specific relevant preferences or directions, contact other people close to the person to see if there were any relevant, previously expressed views and social or relationship factors to consider in decision making.
- 7 What do you know about the person? Think about the person's known values, life goals and cultural, linguistic and religious preferences, and make the decision that the person would make if they had access to current information and advice.
- 8 Consider the options. If you find you have many options that meet the decision-making criteria: (1) uphold the person's wishes, (2) choose the least restrictive option, or (3) choose the option that most reflects the decision the person would have made.
- 9 Post-decision care. Think about where the person will live once the decision has been made, for example, are there care arrangements in place so that the person can continue to live at home?
- 10 Decide. If there is no evidence of what the person would have decided, make the decision that would best provide for the person's care and protect their interests.

INFORMATION FOR WITNESSES

The following persons or classes of persons are considered authorised witnesses. Check that you fit one of the authorised witness categories (as per Schedule 1 of the Regulations):

|                          |                       |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Health practitioners  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Justices of the Peace |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Legal practitioners   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Police officers       |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Social workers        |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Teachers              |

Take this document with you to get your Advance Care Directive witnessed.

ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE

You must be independent of the person you are witnessing for, which means you cannot be:

- a beneficiary in their will
- appointed as their Substitute Decision-Maker; or
- their health practitioner or paid professional carer.

If there is a chance you will be the person's health practitioner in the future, you should not witness their Advance Care Directive.

It is your choice whether or not you witness a person's Advance Care Directive.

- To be valid under the Act, an Advance Care Directive must be completed on the official Advance Care Directive Form. It may be completed in handwriting (ink only) or electronically.
- Do not witness the Advance Care Directive until it has been finalised, including signed by any Substitute Decision-Makers (you do not need to witness the acceptance).
- It is not your role to check the content of the person's Advance Care Directive.
- If you think the person is not competent to complete an Advance Care Directive, you can request they provide medical documentation which states that they are.

Training

A list of training for witnesses is available at:

Checklist for witnesses

To fulfil your obligations as a witness, it is strongly encouraged that you complete the online training for witnesses. You must complete the following checklist:

|                          |   |
|--------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Confirm that the identity of the person matches the details on the Form .  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Ask the person to read the Information Statement . If they did not bring theirs with them, or you do not have a copy, you can download or view a copy on a computer or smart device, such as your mobile phone, at advancecaredirectives.sa.gov.au  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Speak with the person alone so you can assess if they are voluntarily giving the Advance Care Directive and to limit the possibility of coercion by others. If you reasonably suspect the person is not making their Advance Care Directive of their own free will, do not witness the document and refer them to page 28 of the Do-It-Yourself Guide , which provides additional support contact information. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Check that the Form has been written in ink and whether there are any alterations to the Form (including white-out). You and the person completing the Form should initial and date any alterations. Make sure any blank sections have a large 'Z' drawn across them. You do not need to initial the 'Z's'.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Once the person has read the Information Statement ask the questions below to make sure you are satisfied the person appears to understand the Information Statement and that they do not appear to be acting under duress or coercion.  |
| <input type="radio"/>    | What is an Advance Care Directive?  |
| <input type="radio"/>    | When will your Advance Care Directive be used?  |

| <input type="checkbox"/> | Both you and the person giving this Advance Care Directive must initial and date each page of the Advance Care Directive in the boxes provided on the Form.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Fill in the Witnessing section Part 7b of the Form. Record your name, witness category and contact details and then sign the Form.
