Exceptional Kangaroo Island

Since 1986, Exceptional Kangaroo Island has been providing luxury small-group, private and special-interest tours with a choice of premium accommodation options. In September 2020 the business passed a 30-year milestone under the leadership of Craig and Janet Wickham, and in October 2020, Exceptional Kangaroo Island will incorporate Kangaroo Island Wilderness Tours.

The unprecedented bushfires (which burned 42% of the Island) and Covid19 provided a stimulus to review all operational areas, resulting in the development of new experiences:

- tours with a fire recovery and wildlife research component;
- a local produce experience;
- a series of private dining options not dependant on a tour component;
- new e-bike tours (launching December).

Seppeltsfield Wines

With a proud and priceless legacy dating back to 1851, Seppeltsfield is Australia's iconic wine estate.

Over $AUD 5M has been invested in the Seppeltsfield property since 2009, including JamFactory Art & Design Studios, destination restaurant, FINO, Vasse Virgin skin care, along with significant landscape architecture additions.

The estate boasts 150 acres of majestic vineyard, diverse gardens and historic buildings - twelve of which are heritage listed. Seppeltsfield is included in the 'Ultimate Wineries of Australia' collective and is an inaugural Barossa Trustmark recipient - awarded to Barossa products and experiences that demonstrate exemplary achievement and distinction across Origin, Integrity, Quality, Environment and Community.

Seppeltsfield is famed for the Centennial Collection - an irreplaceable and unbroken lineage of Tawny of every vintage from 1878 to current year. The estate remains the only winery in the world to release a 100-year-old, single vintage wine each year, which retains Australia's only 100/100 point score by industry critique, James Halliday.
