

CRUISE LINE ALCOHOL POLICIES

WHAT CAN BE TAKEN ON-BOARD?

Many passengers are unsure about what can be taken on board and each cruise line's alcohol policy (i.e. whether bottles of alcohol are permitted, or if a corkage fee applies). To clarify what can and cannot be taken on-board, see below for the alcohol policies of cruise lines that call into Port Adelaide.

CARNIVAL CRUISES & AUSTRALIA

Alcohol is not allowed to be brought on-board for consumption. Alcohol purchased duty-free on-board or while ashore will be collected at the gangway and stored for the duration of the cruise. Passengers can collect their alcohol on the final day of their voyage.

PRINCESS CRUISES

Guests are permitted to bring a single 750ml bottle of wine or champagne on-board to be consumed in their stateroom. Passengers may choose to consume this bottle elsewhere on the ship for a $15 corkage fee. Additional bottles are welcome, but will incur a $15 corkage fee each; irrespective of where they are consumed. All other alcohol purchased on-board or while ashore will be collected, stored and returned on the last day of the cruise.

CELEBRITY CRUISES

When embarking, guests may bring up to two bottles of wine on-board per stateroom, subject to a corkage fee. Alcohol bought on-board or while ashore will be stored and returned on the last day of the cruise.

CUNARD

Wine or champagne can be brought on-board, however if it is consumed in a public area, each bottle is subject to a $20 corkage fee. Wine and champagne from the Cunard Gift Collection are exempt from the corkage fee. All other bottles or alcohol bought while onshore will be stored and returned on the last day of the cruise.

HOLLAND AMERICA LINE

Guests are permitted to bring a single 750ml bottle of wine or champagne on-board in their carry-on luggage, which may be consumed in their stateroom with no corkage fee. Additional bottles will incur a corkage fee of US$18 each. Alcohol bought on-board or while ashore will be stored and returned at the end of the cruise.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISES

Guests are permitted to bring two bottles of wine or champagne (750ml maximum) per stateroom on-board. Each bottle will incur a corkage fee of US$15 if consumed in a public area on the ship. All bottles of alcohol purchased while onshore or on-board will be stored and returned to the passenger at the end of the voyage.

AZAMARA

Wine, beer or other liquor may be brought on-board to be consumed in guest staterooms; if consumed in a public area on the ship, each bottle will be subject to a US$10 corkage fee. No corkage fee applies to alcohol purchased through Azamara's Bon Voyage Gift selection. All other alcohol purchased on-board or while ashore will be stored and returned on the last day of sailing.

CRUISE & MARITIME VOYAGES

Passengers are not permitted to bring liquor onto the ship for cruises or in-port celebrations due to the ship's liquor licence. Duty-free alcohol bought on-board will be stored and delivered to the passenger's cabin on the last day of the cruise.

PERISHABLE ITEMS

Please note that perishable items, such as fresh local produce, are not permitted to be brought on-board any cruise ship, and will be disposed of at the gangway. Sealed, non-perishable food items may be permitted. Please check the ship's policy to determine whether it is allowed on-board.
