GLENELG ADELAIDE

Glenelg is Adelaide's most popular beach, only 20-min by car or 40-min by tram from the city centre.

The image shows the interior of a wine cellar. In the center, a row of wooden barrels with metal hoops is arranged in a line, receding into the distance. On either side of the barrels are stacks of dark wooden crates. The walls and ceiling are made of brick, with a prominent brick archway at the end of the aisle. The lighting is warm and focused on the barrels and the archway. The text "PENFOLDS MAGILL ESTATE" and "ADELAIDE" is overlaid in white on the brick wall.

PENFOLDS MAGILL ESTATE

ADELAIDE

Just 15 minutes from the city, Magill Estate offers breathtaking views of the iconic Penfolds vineyards.
